

East and West Midlands Branch

THE INSTITUTE OF MATHEMATICS AND ITS APPLICATIONS

Joint Branch Social Event

at the

Heathcote Arms
Croft, Leicester LE9 3EG

Thursday 24th June 2010

Meet by 6.30 p.m. in the Bar for a directed Walk and Quiz

or

7.30pm in the Skittle Alley

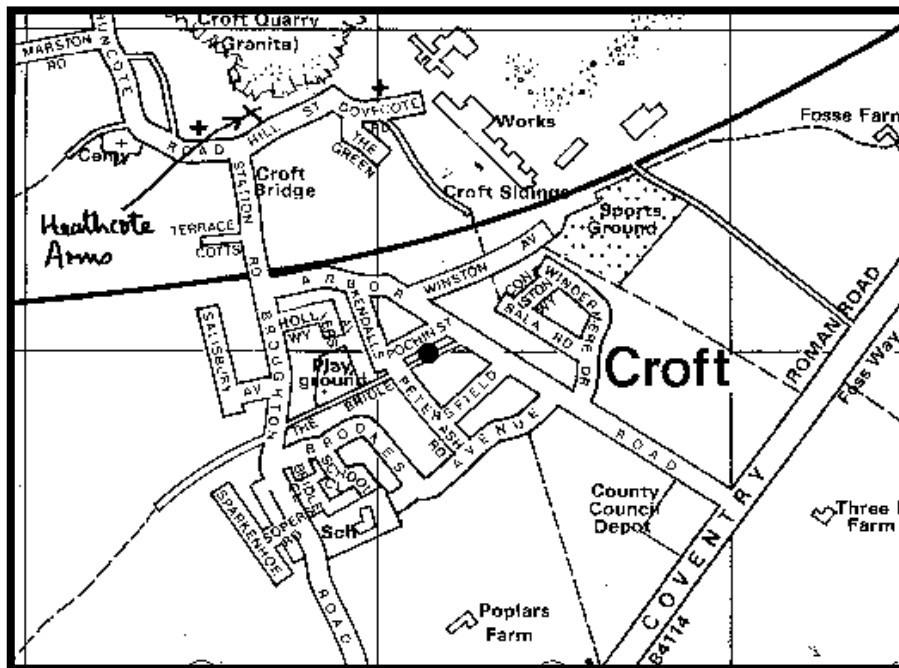

Members and their guests from both the IMA East and West Midlands Branch are encouraged to attend a summer evening of social activities centred around the Heathcote Arms in Croft, Leicestershire. Croft is a village with substantial industrial heritage and conveniently situated near the Leicester end of the M69 motorway. Early participants are invited to spend an hour investigating the interesting features of Croft, guided by a quiz. Later we will retire to the skittle alley where matters mathematical and more, can be discussed over a challenge skittles game and a pub meal.

A pub meal will be available at about 9.00pm, to be booked in advance, and will be priced at £6.00. Please contact Mike Howkins (email : mgh@dmu.ac.uk or tel(work) : 0116 257 7069) to book a meal, by Tuesday 15th June 2010.

(see attached map for details of location and travel or type the pub's postcode into www.multimap.co.uk)

For further details of this event (map) or other East Midlands Branch activities consult the Web Site <http://science.ntu.ac.uk/msor/ccb/ima.html> or by contacting the Branch Secretary:

Dr Stephen Hibberd, School of Mathematical Sciences, University of Nottingham, University Park, Nottingham NG7 2RD; email: Stephen.Hibberd@nottingham.ac.uk or Tel. (0115) 9513841

Heathcote Arms, Hill Street, Croft

Croft is about 10 miles south-west of Leicester.

Travelling from Leicester or M1

From M1 Junction 21 follow the B4114 in a south-west direction. After passing Narborough (the main village has a by-pass), about 2 miles later there is a right turn into Croft. This is well signposted, but on a slight rise in the B4114, next to the County Council Depot. Follow the road through Croft to the Heathcote Arms.

Travelling from Midlands along M69

From M69 Junction 1, turn right along A5 towards Milton Keynes. After about 3 miles, turn left along B4114, through Sharnford towards Narborough. At the first Croft turn, turn left and follow the road through Croft to the Heathcote Arms.