

IMA Hedy Lamarr Prize 2027

The IMA Hedy Lamarr Prize for Knowledge Exchange in Mathematics and its Applications was introduced to the community in 2020, with the first award expected in 2021. The prize is run every two years and awarded to a mathematician who demonstrates meritorious knowledge exchange in mathematics and its applications according to the award criteria below.

Award Nomination Form

Candidate Details

Candidate's Name

Candidate's Email Address

Nominator Details

Nominator's Name

Nominator's Email Address

Nominator's Membership Number

Supporting Documentation

Up-to-date CV for the Nominee

Please attach an up-to-date CV for the nominee (maximum two A4 sides, minimum 11pt font). The CV should include:

- Summary of education and career
- Brief details of relevant research publications
- Any other information the nominee considers appropriate

Accepted file formats: PDF, .doc, .docx

☐ CV attached

Supporting Commentary

Please provide a supporting commentary of no more than 500 words (3,000 characters) addressing how the nominee meets the award criteria.

Supporting Commentary:

Declaration

I confirm that the information provided in this nomination is accurate to the best of my knowledge.

Nominator's Signature: _____

Date: _____

Checklist

- ☐ Candidate's details completed
- ☐ Nominator's details completed
- ☐ CV attached (PDF, .doc or .docx)
- ☐ Supporting commentary included (maximum 500 words / 3,000 characters)
- ☐ Declaration signed and dated